The Latest Legal Authorities

The Ethical Obligations of the Lawyer

—BY—

GLEASON L. ARCHER

AUTHOR OF

"Law Office and Court Procedure"

The first adequate explanation of the principles underlying the rules of professional conduct, together with such other principles of legal ethics as would confront the lawyer in his every-day practice. The chapters deal in detail with the change of status from layman to lawyer, the various considerations that should govern a lawyer, in choosing and managing his office, his obligations to his clients, duties to the adverse party, duties and obligations to other lawyers, the very difficult and elusive topic of legal fees, etc. An appendix contains the American Bar Association's Canons of Ethics, Hoffman's Resolutions and a schedule of legal fees, as adopted by a prominent Bar Association.

The Federal Penal Code In Force, Jan. 1, 1910

ANNOTATED BY

GEORGE F. TUCKER

AND

CHARLES W. BLOOD

This work gives the complete text of the new United States Criminal Code which Congress authorized by the Act of March 4, 1909. Its various sections are fully annotated, the notes pointing out all changes in the Criminal Laws to the present time and citing all the decisions of the courts, explaining and elucidating these laws down to May 1, 1910. In the Appendix will be found references to the laws of a general nature, permanent in character, in force Dec. 1, 1908, having penal provisions, not contained in the Criminal Code, but embraced in the general revision of the Laws of the United States. These references are also annotated.
